

AMY DAVIES

Assistant Project Manager

Amy started with DAY PM as a Project Support Officer with a Higher Education Merit in Paramedic Medicine from the University of Lancashire. She brings over 4 years of diverse experience within the Healthcare industry, having worked across multiple specialties including cardiovascular, dementia, maternity wards, delivery suites, theatres and later the front line with Northwest Ambulance Services (NWAS.) As well as healthcare experience, Amy also has experience working as a business Administrator for an Apprenticeship training company, making her proficient in Microsoft software such as Excel, Word, Share Point and PowerPoint. Amy excels in schedule management, time management and strategic planning.

Amy was promoted to Assistant Project Manager and is skilful in negotiating with Clients, Contractors, and Stakeholders, ensuring any issues that arise are efficiently solved in a timely manner, orchestrating any conversations that need to be held. Amy's experience has given her the ability to be able to adapt herself to changing situations quickly and effectively, whilst striving for continuous improvement and completing her role to her full potential. Along with her excellent work ethic this will allow Amy to contribute to projects becoming successful.

Amy has now started to lead on her own schemes as part of her learning and development alongside undertaking formal qualifications to support her growth within DAY PM. She also plays a key role in supporting and promoting the company and its staff on social media sites.
