

MANDY LINCOLN

Operations Manager

Mandy is the Operations Manager at DAY Project Management Ltd. She is enthusiastic, efficient and motivated professional, who has both worked within and managed operations and accounts for a variety of industries. Mandy has been with DAY PM for almost four years, after spending over 20 years within the transport industry.

Along with her accountancy and company secretary experience, Mandy's skills include managing Human Resources and payroll for over 30 employees. Involvement in the structure of a group of companies and then managing their day-to-day running in both either entirety and simultaneously. Management accounting, year end procedures and taxation issues.

Mandy has very strong organisational skills which is used to support everyone at DAY Pm, she is proactive, supportive and is one of our Mental Health at work First Aiders.