

KATY SCHOFIELD

Assistant Project Manager

Katy embarked on a career change and joined DAY PM as an Assistant Project Manager to deliver a variety of projects. Katy is a registered STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and a Maths Ambassador, who leads and supports on the Social Value within projects. Katy also co-ordinates engagement with schools and community groups across the North West to support the businesses goals and Social Value initiatives along with being a key driver for us achieve our carbon reduction targets. She is continuing her professional development to develop her knowledge and insight into project management by undertaking the APM qualification to become a chartered member of the Association of Project Management.

Katy has an attention to detail which is key when recording information on minutes, dashboards and project trackers.